Greetings to the NCCoC Council- Chapter Presidents and Board

The Western Carolina Chapter is pleased to host the NC Council of Chapter 2nd Quarterly meeting in Hendersonville, NC on May 17-18, 2019. We have a great program on Friday night and there is a lot to do in the area if you plan to spend more than one night here.

Lodging: We have rooms reserved for lodging and a meeting room for the Saturday morning meeting.

Mountain Lodge and Conference Center
42 McMurray Rd
Flat Rock, NC 28731

For reservations: 828-693-9910 or www.mountainlodgeflatrock.com
Reserve under "MOAA Group"

Friday Night Dinner and Program (May 17) Dinner will be at the Hendersonville Country Club (about 7 miles from the hotel – directions provided at the hotel) Social hour from 5-6 PM with a cash bar. Dinner begins at 6 PM followed by announcements and program. Dinner will be buffet service with chicken marsala and flounder almondine as main courses. Dinner cost is $30.00 per person. Attire will be jackets and tie for gentlemen with comparable attire for the ladies.

Our program will be Chapter member and cold war veteran Col. Richard "Duke" Woodhull, USAF (Ret.) '55-'85 who will discuss what went into his book "Flying High – Memoir of a 30 Year Adventure" If you served in Viet Nam this should bring back memories.

Saturday Morning Meeting (May 18) The NCCoC quarterly meeting will start at 08:30 AM in the hotel meeting room. For hotel guests, breakfast is included with the room.

Spouses Activities: There are no currently planned spouse activities for Saturday morning. However, there are numerous things to do in the Hendersonville/Flat Rock area. If you plan to spend Saturday night in Flat Rock, there is a play at the Flat Rock Playhouse, free tours of the Sierra Nevada Brewery, Carl Sandburg Home, Tryon International Equestrian Center, and much more.
